

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. J. RES. 38

Designating March 20, 1993, as “National Quilting Day”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 2 (legislative day, JANUARY 5), 1993

Mrs. KASSEBAUM introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating March 20, 1993, as “National Quilting Day”.

Whereas quilting is an ancient art form which has evolved in the United States to become instantly recognizable as an American folk art;

Whereas quilting serves the needs of many people and has been the stimulus for social gatherings which promote sharing, friendship, and mutual support;

Whereas quilt making is often representative of the social, religious, or political convictions of the maker;

Whereas quilters have provided comfort and warmth to generation of loved ones, the ill, and the unfortunate through the gift of quilts; and

Whereas recognition is due to all quilters in this nation who share their creativity, time, and talents to the benefit of mankind, thus preserving a part of our American heritage: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That March 20, 1993, is designated as “National Quilting
4 Day.” The President is authorized and requested to issue
5 a proclamation calling on the people of the United States
6 to observe such day with appropriate programs, cere-
7 monies, and activities.

○